Gangsters Vimalabai, Sunil Rathod surrender after stern police warning

Duo give up after SP H D Anand Kumar warned Chadachan family of seizing their assets

MAHESH M GOUDAR @Vijayapura

AFTER Superintendent of Police H D Anand Kumar warned the Chadachan family of seizing their assets if they failed to surrender, Vimalabai Chadachan and her aide Sunil Rathod appeared before the District Sessions Court on Tuesday.

The duo was sent to judicial custody. Chadachan family is one of the notorious gangs of Bheema River bank in the district.

Vimalabai, who is a wife of most wanted criminal Mallikarjun Chadachan, faces criminal charges in at least eight cases.

She had gone underground after a group of criminals had attacked Mahadeva Sahukar Byragonda, who is another gangster in Bheema River bank

Vimalabai Chadachan, one of the gangsters of Bheema River bank, has surrendered before the court on Tuesday and rival to Chadachan family, in November 2020.

Vimalabai is the second main accused in this case for conspiring to attack Byragonda.

Even after the extensive search, the police had failed to trace out Vimalabai and her aides connected to this case. A couple of weeks ago, the SP Anand Kumar had warned that the police department would seize all their assets if they failed to turn up either before the police or court.

Speaking to the reporters, SP Anand Kumar said, "With regard to the attack on gangster Byragonda and eight other cases, Mallikarjun Chadachan and his family members and aides had gone underground. An effort is being made to nab them. As a part of the investigations, two teams were working extensively in Pune to arrest the main accused Mallikarjun Chadachan."

"After we were making preparations to seize the properties of the Chadachan family, Vimalabai and his aide surrendered before the court. They have been sent to judicial custody. If necessary, we will take both into custody for investigation in the coming days. Meanwhile, Mallikarjun and another accused, who supplied arms, are absconding and efforts are being made to arrest them too," stated SP Kumar.

It may be recalled that the district police allegedly conspiring with Byragonda, had encountered history-shetter Dharmaraj Chadachan and his brother Gangadhar Chadachan, the sons of Mallikarjun and Vimalabai, in a reported fake encounter in 2017. In order to avenge the deaths of their children, Mallikarjun allegedly planned an attack on Byragonda in 2020. In the attack, Byragonda was injured severely after being hit by three bullets from the rival gang.

RaGa attends first PAC meet in Hubballi

PRAMODKUMAR VAIDYA

AHEAD of the 2013 Assembly election, the Political Affairs Committee (PAC) of the state Congress met here on Tuesday in the presence of party senior leader Rahul Gandhi, who was in the city to take part in Siddaramotsava, the 75th birthday celebration of CLP leader Siddaramaiah to be held in Davanagere on Wednesday.

The 35-member PAC was constituted recently following a decision taken at the Udaipur Chintan Baithak and it met for the first time after its formation. AICC General Secretary (organisation) KC Venugopal chaired the meeting of the committee, which has been formed to prepare the party for the election and chalk out the poll strategy. After the meeting, Venugopal said, "We had a fruitful discussion for the 2023 elections. On every important issue, PAC meets frequently and takes collective decisions."

He said Rahul appealed to the leaders to go aggressively against the misrule of the BJP governments in the state and Centre. The leaders were asked to stand united and fight against antipeople and anti-democratic policies of the Union and state governments.

"We have to work for the people and convince them that there will be a people-centric government in Karnataka. The party is chalking out programmes to address their concerns. All leaders opined that Congress should fight united against the BJP governments. The meeting decided to drive out the corrupt government in > he added. He said, "The leaders were asked not to air different opinions inside or outside the party forum and not to discuss any internal issues in public."

Karnataka in 2023,'

Asked whether the leaders were asked not to raise the leadership issue till the election campaign starts, he said, "There is no leadership issue... no talk on that at all. As per the party's policy, the MLAs and the leadership will decide on it after winning the election," he said.

Military aspirants from rural areas get free training

GADAG: Retired soldiers in Shirol village of Gadag district have come together to train youths who aspire to join the security forces and recent military recruitment scheme, Agnipath. Their aim is to push more youths from the rural parts of Gadag into the Indian military establishments.

The initiative started with social activities in Shirol village by the Youth Sainik Friends Association (YSFA), set up by retired soldiers. They started to train the youth for competitive exams but it came to a halt with the outbreak of the Covid-19 pandemic. From this year, a retired soldier Siddu Gajjari started free physical training for the rural youth who wanted to join the military. As this initiative got a boost from several associations of retired security personnel through social media, many youths from Haveri, Dharwad, Koppal and Bagalkot districts came forward for the training.
