Central Bank of India along with Bajaj Allianz General Insurance Co. Ltd. Donated Raincoats to Covid-19 warriors The Maharashtra Police

Since the outbreak of COVID – 19 the entire world has been driven to the safety of their homes. However, the Maharashtra Police being the frontline fighters have been on the roads every single day ensuring essential services are not interrupted. Their bravado knows no bounds.

We salute these heroes, and in an attempt to express our appreciation Central Bank of India in collaboration with Bajaj Allianz General Insurance Co. Ltd donated 1000 Raincoats to the Maharashtra Police. With the onset of brutal monsoons, we hope these raincoats will help to protect them.

In an event organized on the 18th Aug 2020, at Central Bank Of India Central Office MD & CEO of the Bank Shri Pallav Mohapatra along with ED Shri B S Shekhawat, ED Shri Alok Srivastava and Bajaj Allianz General Insurance President and Country Head Smt Alpana Singh greeted IPS & DCP of Mumbai Zone 1 Shri SangramsinhNishandar and other senior officials of the Maharashtra Police graced the occasion.

Applauding the good work put in by Maharashtra Police CBI MD & CEO Shri Pallav Mohapatra said “The efforts put in by our police force is second to none, we are Thankful for all the risks they take often at a personal cost in serving the public. Our small contribution is an attempt to express our gratitude to the unwavering hard work of the Maharashtra Police”

Commenting on this initiative, Alpana Singh, Head – Bancassurance (PSUs, RRBs, & Co-operative Banks), Bajaj Allianz General Insurance said, “Covid-19 has brought in trying times for each one of us. While we are safe within our homes, the Police department is working day in and day out to add to our safety and security. Through this gesture in association with Central Bank of India, we aim to show care and support towards their work for our society. We are with them and will be there to support in any manner possible.”

Commenting on the gesture of goodwill IPS & DCP Shri Sangramsinh Nishandar further said “We are extremely Thankful for the consideration, and the support, it means a lot to the department. The raincoats will be a great aid in keeping the force dry as they follow out there duties through the rain riddled season. Central Bank of India has always been a great supporter to the Maharashtra Police Dept. and we look forward to strengthening bonds in the future as well.”
