

DIVIDEND DISTRIBUTION POLICY

I. DEFINITIONS :

- Dividend: Dividend includes interim dividend. In common parlance, Dividend' means the profit of the Bank, which is not retained in the business and is distributed among the shareholders in proportion to the amount paid up on the shares held by them.
- b. CRAR: It is the ratio of the Bank's capital to its risk weighted assets.
- c. Dividend Payout Ratio: 'Dividend payout ratio' is calculated as a percentage of dividend payable in a year' (excluding dividend tax) to 'net profit during the year'.
- d. Board: Board means Board of Directors of the Bank constituted in terms of Section 9 (3) of the Banking Companies (Acquisition and Transfer of Undertakings) Act, 1970.

II. Policy:

1. The Policy will be called as 'Central Bank of India Dividend Distribution Policy.'
2. General Principles of the Bank regarding distribution of dividend:

Thrust of the Corporate Governance of the Bank is to enhance shareholders' value by pursuing ethical practices in the conduct of its business and maintaining high standard of disclosure and transparency. The Bank has adopted best practices, and standards of governance are monitored by various Committees of the Board. The Board, the Executives and other functionaries have distinctly demarcated roles in achieving the Corporate goals – improved performance and enhanced shareholders' value. The dividend for each year would be recommended by the Board at its discretion as per the Policy guidelines, after taking into account the financial performance of the Bank, its future plans, internal and external factors, statutory restrictions, etc., for declaration by the shareholders in General Meeting. The Board may also declare interim dividend at its discretion.

III. Eligibility Criteria for declaration of dividend:

Bank will be eligible to declare dividends only when it complies with the following minimum prudential requirements;

- i. The Bank should have :
 - CRAR of at least 9% for preceding two completed years and the accounting year for which it proposes to declare dividend
 - Net NPA less than 7%.

In case the Bank does not meet the above CRAR norm, but is having a CRAR of at least 9% for the accounting year for which it proposes to declare dividend, it would be eligible to declare dividend provided its Net NPA is less than 5%.

- ii. The Bank shall comply with the provisions of Sections 15 (which prohibits payment of dividend until all capitalized expenses have been written off) and Section 17 (which stipulates transfer of specified portion of profit to statutory reserve fund) of the Banking Regulation Act, 1949.
- iii. The Bank shall comply with the prevailing regulations / guidelines issued by RBI, including creating adequate provisions for impairment of assets and staff retirement benefits, transfer of profits to Statutory Reserves etc.
- iv. The proposed dividend should be payable out of the current year's Net Profit.
- v. The Reserve Bank of India should not have placed any explicit restrictions on the Bank for declaration of dividends.

IV. Quantum of dividend payable :

- A. In terms of Government of India guidelines, the Bank shall pay a minimum dividend of 20% of its equity (i.e. paid up capital) or 20% of its post –tax profits, whichever is higher. In case, Bank decides to pay interim dividend, the total dividend to be paid by the bank based on the annual results should be as per the guidelines.

Further, any relaxation from the provisions of these instructions requires specific prior permission from the Government of India.

- B. However in terms of the guidelines prescribed by Reserve Bank of India, the Bank, if it fulfills the eligibility criteria set out at Clause II Point No.3 above, may declare and pay dividends subject to the following:
 - i. The dividend payout ratio shall not exceed 40% and shall be as per the matrix furnished in Annexure.

- ii. In case the profit for the relevant period includes any extra-ordinary profits/ income, the payout ratio shall be computed after excluding such extraordinary items for reckoning compliance with the prudential payout ratio.
- iii. The financial statements pertaining to the financial year for which the bank is declaring a dividend should be free of any qualifications by the statutory auditors, which have an adverse bearing on the profit during that year. In case of any qualification to that effect, the net profit should be suitably adjusted while computing the dividend payout ratio.
- iv. In case of non payment of interest on Basel-III Compliant bonds or non achievement of the Basel-III CRAR ratios including CCB, RBI puts restrictions on the dividend in their master circular issued for this purpose.

V. Internal and External Factors:

The dividend payout decision of the Bank will also depend on certain external factors such as the state of the economy of the country, statutory and regulatory provisions, tax regulations including the treatment of deferred tax assets etc., as may be applicable at the time of declaration of the dividend.

Apart from the aforesaid external factors, Board will also take into account various internal factors, such as business growth plans, the interim dividend paid, the Annual Financial Inspection findings of the Reserve Bank with regard to divergence in identification of NPAs, shortfall in provisioning, etc., the auditors' qualifications pertaining to the statement of accounts, future capital requirements, replacement of capital assets, etc. The decision of the Board regarding dividend shall be final.

VI. Provisions with regard to various classes of shares:

The Bank currently has only one class of shares, namely Equity Shares. In case of issuance of any other class of shares in future, the parameters shall be decided suitably by the Bank at appropriate time. However, Bank shall follow the guidelines as applicable for preference shares, if raised.

VII. Manner of Payment of dividend:

As per Regulation 12 of SEBI (LODR) Regulations, the Bank shall use any of the electronic mode of payment facility approved by the Reserve Bank of India for the payment of the dividends. Where it is not possible to use electronic mode of payment, 'payable-at-par' warrants or cheques will be issued to the eligible shareholders.

VIII. Disclosure and Reporting:

- a. The Policy will be disclosed on the website of the Bank and a web link shall be provided in the Annual Report.
- b. The Bank shall report the details of dividend declared during the accounting year to RBI as per the proforma and timeline specified by RBI.
- c. The Bank shall declare and disclose the dividend on per share basis only as specified under SEBI (LODR) Regulations.

IX. Tenure

This Policy will be in force till the time it is not amended or revoked by the Board. In the event of variance on any matters, between the Policy and Regulatory changes made after approval of the current policy, the Regulatory Changes will be effective till the Policy is amended in line with the these changes.
