NOTIFICATION

The written test for recruitment of specialist officers in Central bank of India was held on 21.12.2019. The Interview process for all the successful candidates were conducted from 01.06.2020 to 08.06.2020, but some candidates could not appear for interview due to lock-down arising out of COVID-19 pandemic. Central Bank of India has decided to give a last chance for all the absentees. All the absentee candidates are advised to appear for the interview to be held through Video Conference at the venue allotted to them on 06-08-2020 at 9:00 am sharp. The non-appearance for the said interview on the said date will be treated as their refusal for the recruitment process they have applied for and no further communication from their end in this regard will be entertained. However Candidates who are unable to attend the interview due to any extra ordinary circumstances (like enforcement of full shutdown, etc.) can apply for change in venue from the uploaded list of address of RO/ZO in the attached format only by 30.07.2020 only. Please note any request to change the venue after 17:00 hrs. on 30.07.2020 will not be entertained.

Candidates should make their own arrangements to reach the advised venue for interview at their own cost. Mere appearing in the interview does not confer any right for claiming appointment
